Turin, June 11. N. S.

THE Imperial Troops are in full March towards this Place. General Martini's Regiment of Horſe is arrived at Orbaſſan; two Regiments of Infantry are come to Moncallier; and the reſt of the Forces are ſo far advanced, that the whole Army will be aſſembled on the 20th Inſtant. His Royal Highneſs hath reviewed the Cavalry, which was drawn up on a Plain between this City and the Venerie. We are adviſed from Genoa, that the Imperial Troops deſigned for the Service in Catalonia would be ready to embark at Vado on the 14th Inſtant.

Berlin, June 7. N. S. On the 1ſt Inſtant the King removed with the Court from Potſdam to Charlottenburg, from whence his Majeſty came to this Place on the 4th, dined with the Feld Marſhal, and returned the ſame Night to Charlottenburg. Yeſterday the King came hither again, in order to hold a Council of War, and dined with Monſieur Blaſpiel, the Commiſſary-General. His Majeſty had given Orders to lay a Tax upon all Houſes throughout his Dominions, in order to build a Wall between every fifth Houſe, to prevent the Damage which might otherwiſe happen by a Fire; but upon the general Complaint of the Inhabitants, and the Repreſentations of the Magiſtrates of this City, his Majeſty hath been pleaſed to recede from that Reſolution. Monſieur Rantzaw, the Daniſh Envoy, had ſome time ſince made a Contract with certain Merchants, for four thouſand Horſes, and two thouſand Saddles; but this Agreement being made without the Conſent or Knowledge of this Court, it is believed his Pruſſian Majeſty will not permit that ſo great a number of Horſes ſhall, at this Juncture, be ſent out of his Dominions.

Dublin, June 15. On the 8th Inſtant the Houſe of Commons reſolved it ſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to take into further Conſideration the Supply granted to her Majeſty, and came to a Reſolution that the ſaid Supply be a Sum not exceeding 122952 l. 12 s. 3 q. On the 9th Inſtant this Reſolution was reported from the Committee, and unanimouſly agreed unto by the Houſe; together with ſeveral other Reſolutions concerning the Rewards to be given to the Officers and Servants of the Houſe, for their Attendance and Service this Seſſion of Parliament. On the 10th the Houſe reſolved it ſelf into a Committee, to take into Conſideration Ways and Means for raiſing the Supply granted to her Majeſty; and reſolved, that Additional Duties be laid upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, upon all Tobacco, and alſo on Muſlins, Silks or Stuffs made or manufactured in Perſia, China or the Eaſt-Indies, which ſhall be imported into this Kingdom from and after the 24th of June 1710, towards the Supply of 122952 l. 12 s. 3 q. Reſolved, That the Additional Duty of every thirty two Gallons of Beer and Ale above ſix Shillings the Barrel, brewed within this Realm for Sale, be one Shilling and ſix Pence, to be paid by the Brewer; and that the Additional Duty of every thirty two Gallons of, or under ſix Shillings per Barrel, be three Pence; that an Additional Duty of three Pence be laid on every Gallon of Aquavitæ, Strong Waters or Spirits, to be paid by the Maker or Diſtiller thereof. That the Additional Duty on Tobacco that ſhall be Imported after the 24th of June One thouſand ſeven hundred and ten, be three Pence half Penny per Pound, over and above the Hereditary Duty of two Pence half Penny per Pound, payable for the ſame; That the Additional Duties on all Muſlins be ſix Pence per Yard; and on all Silks and Stuffs made or manufactured in Perſia, China or the Eaſt-Indies, which ſhall be imported into this Realm, one Shilling and ſix Pence per Yard. All which Additional Duties are to be continued for a Year and an half, commencing the 25th Day of June 1710. and ending the 24th of December 1711. To all which Reſolutions of the Committee, the Houſe did unanimouſly agree on the 12th Inſtant, and ordered Heads of a Bill to be brought in for granting a Supply to her Majeſty on the ſaid Reſolutions. The ſame Day alſo Mr. Speaker reported, that the Houſe, with their Speaker, attended his Excellency the Lord-Lieutenant on Saturday laſt, with Heads of a Bill for Encouragement of Tillage; and that they had deſired his Excellency to recommend the ſame to her Majeſty as a Bill of great Benefit to this Kingdom; that thereupon his Excellency was pleaſed to give the Anſwer following:

I Will take Care to recommend this Bill to Her Majeſty in the moſt effectual manner, as I ſhall every thing that will be grateful to the Commons.

Which Anſwer was ordered to be entred in the Journals of the Houſe. On the 13th the Houſe reſolved it ſelf into a Committee, to take into Conſideration the Heads of a Bill for the better inſtructing the Iriſh Papiſts in the Principles of the Church of Ireland as by Law Eſtabliſhed; and having made ſome Progreſs therein, it was ordered to proceed further therein on Friday the 16th. Then the Houſe reſolved it ſelf into a Committee, to take into Conſideration the Heads of a Bill for the Relief of Inſolvent Debtors now in Confinement; and after ſome time ſpent therein, it was reſolved to take the ſame into further Conſideration the day following. Several Maſter Gunſmiths having petitioned the Houſe in behalf of themſelves, and the reſt of the Proteſtant Gunſmiths in this City and Kingdom, in relation to their Undertaking to make within a limited time a quantity of ſmall Arms, equally good, and as well finiſhed as can be made elſewhere, and at the like Prices; a ſelect Committee was appointed to examine the Allegations of the ſaid Petition, who reſolved that the Allegations in their Petition were to the Satisfaction of the Committee; that they had delivered into the Ordnance, tried and approved Patterns of Firelocks, and had bought Materials fit for the ſaid Work; which Reſolutions were unanimouſly agreed unto by the Houſe. It was hereupon reſolved, that the Houſe ſhould Addreſs her Majeſty, that ſhe will be graciouſly pleaſed to direct that the remaining twelve thouſand five hundred Arms not already contracted for in Great Britain for the Service of Ireland, be made in this Kingdom; a Committee was appointed to prepare the ſaid Addreſs accordingly, and it was ordered that it be an Inſtruction to the ſaid Committee to inſert a Clauſe in the Addreſs, that her Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to direct that ſuch other Arms and Warlike Stores not already contracted for in Great Britain for the Service of Ireland, may be made in this Kingdom. The ſame day a Bill, Entituled, An Act for the better Securing to her Majeſty the Payment of ſuch Duties as ſhall be granted to her Majeſty this Seſſion of Parliament, was read a ſecond time, and committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe on the 14th.

Kingſale, June 7. On the 5th Inſtant arrived the Ave-Maria of Amſterdam, burthen one hundred and fifty Tuns, Thomas van Surrat Maſter, from Guiney, with Gold-Duſt and Elephants Teeth, bound for Amſterdam. On the 6th the Diligence of Briſtol, burthen ſixty Tuns,
